FIREWORKS AND NOISE

Usher in the Celebration of Wheeling's Centennial.

BELLS RING AND CANNONS ROAR

And Hundreds of People add to the Din-Many Whistles Increase the Boisterous Greeting to the Day. Lively Scenes on Market Street-The Exercises at Mozart Park To-day.

HE centennial calebration announced for Mozart park today began before day Before eleven o'clock crowds of people were gath-ered along Market street, shooting rockets, roman candles, giant fire crackers and other fire or noise producers. This was kept up until after midnight, and just before 12 o'clock a number of steam whistles in the railroad yards began to blow. At the railroad yards began to blow. At 12 several church hells were rung, and "Young Tip." from the top of Wheeling hill, belched forth a national salute.

At least a thousand people were gathered on Market street, near Fourteenth, and here a fine display of freworks was centinued for some time. Several balloons were sent up, and the sky was made brilliant with the pyrotechnics.

The exercises of the day will doubtless draw a large crowd to Mozart park. The following programme has been announced by the committee in charge:

1 o'clock—Carriages containing speakers leave McLure house for Mozart park.

ers leave McLure house for Mozart park.

2 o'clock—The public meeting at Mozart park will be opened with prayer, following which will be addresses by Hon. G. W. Atkinson, Dr. C. F. Ulrich (in German), Hon. John A. Howard, Hon. B. B. Dovener, H. C. Richards and others.

Immediately following the meeting the dancing and prize bowling will begin and continue until midnight.

4 o'clock—Grand display of daylight fireworks. These are something entirely new here, and are composed of Japanese goods which are fired from a large mortary to a great height in the air, where they explode, forming many lifelike figures of animals, etc. They float through the air for many minutes and create general amusement.

the air for many minutes and create general amusement.

9 o'clock—Magnificent night fireworks display. This display will be the feature of the day. It is composed of large and beautiful set pieces, and all the latest novelties in the fireworks line.

The bowling contest will be watched with interest, and many high scores may be expected. The committee offers a beautiful gold medal to the bowler getting the highest score during the day or

As this will be the only opportunity for the present generation to celebrate a centennial anniversary of the city, every person should turn out and do all in his power to make the day a memorable one. The committee showed great pluck and enterprise in getting the affair up, and their efforts should be apprecisted.

Up till 2 o'clock this morning a crowd of men and boys was marching about town with adrum and a lot of tin horns, waking up the people to a realizing sense of the fact that it was centennial day. A crowd of men tried to hire a trolley car and go all over the line shooting off freworks, but the car could not be secured.

A SERIOUS FALL

A Ladder Breaks and a Man is Badly injured.

There was a serious accident on Eighteenth street just beyond Eoff yesterday afternoon. A man named Hale, who wanted to make some re-pairs on the roof of his house, got an old ladder down from the roof, where it old ladder down from the root, where it had lain for years, and placing it against the side of the house, started to climb up. He had almost reached the eaves of the roof, when the ladder broke, letting him fall heavily to the ground. He broke one arm in two places and fractured three ribs. He was helped into his house and a physican sum moned, who dressed his injuries. He will be laid up for some time.
